Deutsche Bank Named Among Jacksonville's "Top Companies That Care" for Second Consecutive Year

Deutsche Bank today announced that its Global Business Services Center in Jacksonville has been named among the city's "Top Companies that Care" for the second consecutive year. The award, sponsored by Jacksonville Magazine honors Northeast Florida's most community-minded businesses for their leadership and service.

In 2010, Deutsche Bank employees volunteered more than 2,854 hours in the Jacksonville community through volunteer efforts benefiting 43 nonprofit organizations and a local elementary school. The Bank also participated in 106 community activities and sponsored 22 local events.

"Our commitment to the community in which we live and work is grounded in a long-standing corporate tradition of social responsibility," said Michael Fleming, Head of the Global Business Services Center in Jacksonville. "Deutsche Bank seeks opportunities to play a positive role in addressing local needs by making available financial resources, our talented personnel and the leadership of our management team."
